

Welcome to S-GRID

The Sustainable Growth of Revenues for International Development (S-GRID) program + community can help you scale, grow your revenues, and make a bigger impact.

In partnership with SAP, leading impact investors, and social enterprise thought leaders, S-GRID can help social enterprises build sustainable revenue-based partnerships with the corporate sector. We will help grow your revenues, upskill your team, and together we'll rebuild a more sustainable and equitable economy.

On-Demand Support. New Business Connections. No Equity.

Grow Your Revenues

Learn best practices, get peer support, and receive coaching to help you grow your sales-without having to expand your team. Gain the skills and network to earn more partnership and mission-aligned revenue opportunities.

Expand Your Network & Brand

Learn insights from across the global social impact ecosystem, access new connections, and get introductions to the right people at organizations that will help your social enterprise scale.

Build a Better Team

Access training for you and your key team members to do more with less, operate more effectively, and build a higher-performing organization. Available on-demand, whenever you or your team members need it.

Program Details

Ongoing and on-demand support whenever you and your team need it

The MovingWorlds Sustainable Growth of Revenues for International Development (S-GRID) program helps social enterprises to create sustainable revenue streams by partnering with the corporate sector, connecting into global value chains and making the global economy more sustainable.

Assessment

Take an assessment to identify your biggest opportunities for growth, and biggest support needs — and then get 1-on-1 coaching to prioritize how this program can best support you.

Onboarding

Take the S-GRID 101 Onboarding Orientation, which has all of the information you need to maximize your program experience and take advantage of all resources available to you.

Coaching

Schedule an initial coaching call to go through your assessment results with a MovingWorlds team member and prioritize opportunities for growth through global partnerships. And when you need more, we have a global network to help you access pro-bono coaching.

Networking

Join a global network of peers improving the way they find, create, and sustain revenue-based partnerships with corporations. Meet mission-aligned organizations and source new inspiration and opportunities to collaborate.

Professional Development for Your Entire Team

Engage in a variety of virtual learning opportunities to build the sales effectiveness of your team, including on-demand content, live presentations, peer-based support, and more.

Resources & S-GRID Team Support

Access support via your custom learning dashboard, or reach out directly to MovingWorlds team members.

Extra Tools and Services

Download our interactive guides to help you structure brainstorm and strategy-building sessions with your own team so that you can grow more effectively.

Hands-on Support

MovingWorlds has helped companies — including SAP, Microsoft, Booking, GlaxoSmithKline, Kering, Siemens, Avanade, and more — scale social impact initiatives that drive meaningful change. Professionals from these companies, as well as from our MovingWorlds Institute network, continue to support our mission of leveraging skills for social good. As a member of our network, you'll be able to access this community of world-class experts for quick advice and connections, pro bono consulting, mentoring, and/or training support.

Start Your Application